

Certificate of Course Completion

Advocacy with Victims of Family Court Abuse by Abusers

August 25, September 8, 15, 22, 2020

7 Training Hours

Kim Noble
Participant's Name

Wingfield House of Peace Publications
Virtual Training Center

Debra Wingfield, Ed.D.
Instructor

<http://www.HouseOfPeacePubs.com>

Awareness is growing to provide advocacy for Domestic/Interpersonal Violence victims involved in child custody cases. Special advocacy needs of protective mothers (primarily) require responses to the family court system when allegations of domestic/interpersonal violence that happened during the relationship are identified after separation. Coercive control tactics used in the family court system are defined and assessment processes are presented. Discover how to support victims in family court where the value of access to children overrides victim and children's safety.