

Certificate of Course Completion

Domestic Violence and Coercive Control in Relationships

January 5, 12, 19, and 26, 2021

7 Training Hours

Kim Nobel

Participant's Name

Wingfield House of Peace Publications

Debra Wingfield, Ed.D.

Virtual Training Center

Trainer

<http://www.HouseOfPeacePubs.com>

Abusers use a variety of Coercive Control Tactics in their relationships to keep their spouses/partners constantly on guard. Learn to identify various types of Coercive Control Tactics abusers use, how those Coercive Control Tactics impact their spouses/partners, their children, and the view outsiders have of their relationships. Learn how cognitive distortions manifest in the various coercive control tactics. Be able to identify various coercive control tactics clients present in church interventions, criminal and civil courts. Learn how to challenge cognitive distortions